The terms and conditions for paying dividends shall be set by the Shareholders' Meeting or, otherwise by the Management Board.

However, payment of dividends must take place within a maximum period of nine months following the end of the fiscal year.

Duly received dividends shall never be returnable.

The Shareholders' Meeting deliberating on the accounts of the fiscal year may grant each shareholder, for all or part of the distributed dividend, an option between payment of the dividend in cash or in shares under applicable legal and regulatory conditions.

TITRE VIII
DISSOLUTION – LIQUIDATION

Article 30
Early dissolution

The Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting may, at any time, decide an early dissolution of the Company.

Article 31
Event of losses

When losses, stated in accounting documents, result in the reduction of the shareholders' equity below one-half of the share capital, the Management Board must, within four months following the approval of the accounts stating such losses, convene the Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting to decide on the early dissolution of the Company, if necessary.

In the event a dissolution is not decided, the Company is required, no later than at the end of the second fiscal year following the one when the losses were established, to reduce its share capital by an amount at least equal to the amount of losses which could not be covered by the reserves when, during this period, the shareholders' equity of the Company could not be replenished to reach an amount at least equal to half the share capital, subject to the legal provisions relating to the minimum amount of capital for French sociétés anonymes.

In the absence of the Shareholders' Meeting, as well as in the event such meeting could not deliberate validly, any interested party may ask the courts to dissolve the Company.

Article 32
Conditions for liquidation

Upon expiration of the Company, or in the event of early dissolution, the Shareholders' Meeting shall determine the liquidation method and appoint one or more liquidators and determine who exercises their duties pursuant to law; such an appointment also terminates the duties of the Management Board.

The assets of the dissolved Company shall be allocated, first, to pay the liabilities and corporate expenses, then to reimburse the non-amortized amount of the capital. The remaining proceeds of the liquidation shall be equally allocated to the shares.

TITLE IX DISPUTES

Article 33

Disputes – Address for service

Any disputes which may arise during the term of the Company or during its liquidation either between shareholders, or between the Company and the shareholders themselves, regarding the interpretation and performance of these Articles of Incorporation or regarding corporate matters in general, shall be subject to the Court having jurisdiction in the location of the registered office

For this purpose, in the event of a dispute, each shareholder must have an Address for services subject to the jurisdiction of the competent courts where their registered office is located. All summonses and notices shall be duly delivered to this address.

In the absence of an Address for service, summonses and notices shall be validly made to the Public Prosecutor's Office (Parquet du Procureur de la République) before the Tribunal de Grande Instance where the registered office is located.
